THE PILLAR OF NUMISMA AND PORTUGUESE NUMISMATICS

KNOWLEDGE, INNOVATION, AND AN UNWAVERING PASSION FOR NUMISMATIC HERITAGE

Javier Sáez Salgado, a renowned numismatist and coin appraiser, holds a degree in Finance from the Lisbon Institute of Economics. He is the Chairman of the Board of Numisma, Sociedade de Artigos de Numismática, S.A., a company he founded and established as a benchmark in the numismatic market in Portugal and abroad. Alongside him, Jaime Sáez Salgado specializes in Suebian and Visigothic gold coins, coins from Portugal and its colonies, Brazil, and Portuguese India, as well as rare banknotes and medals from the 17th to 19th centuries.

Numisma has conducted iconic auctions, such as Auction #37, which featured the collection "Gold Coins of Portugal and Brazil - Paulo de Lemos Collection, 500 Years of Coins," and Auction #95, showcasing the "Pessa Collection," recognized as the finest collection of gold coins from Portugal and Brazil. The company also promoted significant events, such as "Gold Coins and Banknotes of Portugal: Eight Centuries of History" in 2002, where Javier Sáez Salgado served as the exhibition curator.

He has contributed to major publications in the field, including Gold Coins of Portugal 1185-1889 and D. Luís Collection, co-authored with José Godinho Miranda, among others, enhancing Numisma's prestige. As a consultant for prominent companies, including banks and insurance firms, and a member of the Numismatic Council of the Imprensa Nacional - Casa da Moeda since 1982, his influence is far-reaching.

Honored as a Commander of the International Order of Merit of the Discoverer of Brazil and awarded the Red Cross Merit, Javier Sáez Salgado continues to strengthen Numisma and the legacy of Portuguese numismatics •

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

- Of great significance are Auction #100 – “Óis Collection”, Auction #103 – “Algarve II Collection”, and the finest collection sold in 41 years, “Porto Vintage Collection”, 2015–2016, across three auctions (#104, #106, and #108), featuring approximately 4,500 coins, 1,200 of which were gold, totaling 2,159 lots. On April 27, 2017, an interesting collection, “Madeira Island”, from a dear friend and client since 1976, was held.
- In June 2017, the significant “Lezírias Auction”, and in October, the “Galaico-Duriense Auction” with high-quality gold coins.
- Numisma continued with nine auctions (#113 to #121) from April 27, 2018, to December 11, 2019, featuring fantastic collections with very rare gold coins and medals, an excellent collection of hammered silver and billon coins, and many other coins from Portugal and around the world, as well as banknotes and numismatic books. Notable collections included “Caldas da Rainha”, “Vista Hermosa”, “Príncipe Real”, “FAdo” (three auctions), “Silves”, “Sagres”, and “Oliveira”.
- To celebrate its 44th anniversary in 2020, Numisma held auctions for the “Abrantes”, “Bragança”, “DADAO”, and “OLÉ” collections.
- Founded in 1976, to mark “Numisma’s 45th anniversary” in 2021, two auctions were held in the first half of the year, “Maravilha I” and “Maravilha II”, and in the first half of the second semester, the “Quilómetro Collection” was presented.

20 FANTASTIC LOTS

SOME OF THE FINEST SPECIMENS AUCTIONED BETWEEN 2015 AND 2019.

Between 2015 and 2019, Numisma Auctions held four memorable auctions that showcased 20 fantastic lots, true gems of Portuguese and Brazilian numismatics, distributed across the Porto Vintage I, II, III and Silves collections. These events attracted collectors and investors due to the rarity, quality, and historical value of the pieces, achieving impressive final values that reflect their exclusivity and condition.

Auction #104 - Porto Vintage I Collection

(2015): Nine extraordinary lots were presented. Highlights include: D. João V - Peça 1727 B (Lot 218), an extremely rare gold coin in superb condition, sold for €82,000. D. Filipe I - 500 Reais (Lot 117), of utmost rarity with a closed crown, fetched €75,000. Dobra 1730 B (Lot 197), sold for €61,000. Brazilian Empire - Serro Frio Mint Bar (Lot 599), an impressive colonial piece in superb condition, sold for €84,000.

Auction #106 - Porto Vintage II Collection

(2016): Three standout lots: D. João V - Peça 1728 B (Lot 233), extremely rare and in superb condition, sold for €70,000. Dobra 1730 B (Lot 222), fetched €46,000. D. Afonso VI - 4 Cruzados 1642 (Lot 188), sold for €50,000, highlighting the enduring value of D. João V's reign among collectors. Auction #108 - Porto Vintage III Collection (2016): Five lots stole the spotlight: D. Fernando I - Dobra Pé Terra (Lot 276), extremely rare and near-superb, achieved the highest value in this collection at €85,000. D. João III - Português (Lot 345), superb and extremely rare, sold for €75,000. D. João III - São Tomé Escudo (India) (Lot 704), reached €65,000, showcasing the geographical and historical diversity of the auctioned coins. Auction #119 - Silves Collection (2019): Three exceptional lots: D. João II - Justo (Lot 12), extremely rare, sold for €72,500. D. Fernando I - Gentil (Lot 11), fetched €50,000. D. Henrique I - 500 Reais (Lot 15), the least expensive of the 20 lots, still impressed at €30,000, demonstrating the enduring strength of medieval and Renaissance numismatics. These 20 lots, spread across the four auctions, achieved total final values exceeding €1.1 million, featuring gold coins ranging from the reign of D. Fernando I (14th century) to the Brazilian Empire, encompassing significant historical periods such as the reigns of D. João V and D. Pedro II. The combination of rarity, superb or near-superb condition (described as "superb," "beautiful," or "MBC+"), and the provenance of the Porto Vintage and Silves collections solidified Numisma Auctions' reputation as a benchmark in the numismatic market, offering pieces that are true treasures of Luso-Brazilian monetary history. •
